

In the man's leggings, which were bulky "was taken as evidence that the Korean knew he was breaking the laws of the Colony. In a perfectly frank manner the defendant admitted being in possession of enough opium to swear by which was certainly not sufficient to make his leggings "bulge out." We refrain from further comment on the case, as it must be as transparent as daylight that this foreign merchant was no opium smuggler, and it therefore needs no special pleadings in the interests of common justice. Mr. Wise merely administered the letter of the law to the hopeless victim admitted having the opium without certificate, and that was enough. He was technically guilty and was fined. Mr. Quincey doubtless interpreted correctly, and that the Korean also stated the truth there cannot be any shadow of doubt whatever. The law is no respecter of persons, and it has to look carefully after such dangerous criminals as Korean opium smugglers. That is what Pak Cheung Tung has firmly implanted in his mind, and he will carefully explain his experiences in the free British port of Hongkong to his countrymen when he gets back home.

SHANGHAI PAPER HUNT CLUB.

SATURDAY, 7TH MARCH, 1891.

Stewards.—A. O. Schuffenhauer, Esq.; Master, J. Callaway, Esq.; A. Cusby, Esq.; Hart Buck, Esq.; F. S. Perrot, Esq.; C. Vincent Smith, Esq.; and F. Aycock, Esq.; Hon. Secretary, A. P. Wood, Esq., Starter.

The first part of the afternoon was very pleasant and was taken advantage of by a good many people, but later on the weather was colder and the racing was regulated by those who viewed the racing from the top of the Grand Stand. The races in which the most interest were taken were the steeplechases, nearly everybody on the Grand Stand mounting to the top of the building to view them. During the afternoon, the Town Band under Chev. Vela, played musical selections.

The following were the events:—
ONE MILE RACE: sweepstakes of $1.00 each; catch weights over 11st. 11lb.; winners of any official 1st race 7lbs. extra.

Mr. H. J. H. Tripp's Resolution, 11st. 11lb. Mr. Tulloch 1
Mr. F. Maitland's Pulpit, 11st. 11lb. Mr. Renny 2
Mr. C. Jordan's Exchange, 11st. 11lb. Mr. Ruff 3
Mr. W. Bullard's Marmalade, 12st. 11lb. Mr. Tulloch 1
Mr. R. C. Renny's Black Diver, 11st. 11lb. Owner 0
Mr. C. F. Woodward's Bandicoot, 11st. 11lb. Mr. Tulloch 1
Mr. H. B. Edlind's Violent, 11st. 11lb. Mr. Renny 2
Mr. F. F. Ferris's Likelihood, 11st. 11lb. Owner 0
Mr. R. de Malherbe's Sky Pilot, 11st. 11lb. Owner 0
Mr. Geo. Dallas's Seashore, 11st. 11lb. Owner 0
Mr. Thos. Kingsmill's Malbrock, 11st. 11lb. Mr. Tulloch 1
Mr. McCarty 0

Out of fourteen entries, eleven ponies faced the starter and after a little trouble they were induced to go away with some degree of unanimity, but Maloja was to the fore, though Resoluit pushed ahead and disputed places with the leader at the Monument, and having gained the lead he kept it all along to the finish. Maloja having lost heart was passed by Pulpit, Exchange, Black Diver, and some of the other ponies. Time 2 min. 10 sec.

The CLUB CUP, value $50, added to half of the entrance fees of $2.00 each; the other half of the entrance fees to go to the second pony. Twice round the Steeplechase course. Catch weights over 11st. Winners of the Grand National 14lbs. extra.

Mr. O. Middleton's Kingcraft, 11st. 11lb. Mr. Tulloch 1
Mr. Midwood's Irkdale, 11st. 11lb. Owner 2
Mr. A. O. Schuffenhauer's Black Adder, 11st. 11lb. Mr. Tulloch 1
Mr. D. W. Crawford's Venture, 11st. 11lb. Owner 0
Mr. H. B. Edlind's Violent, 11st. 11lb. Owner 0
Mr. S. Reynell's Perseverance, 11st. 11lb. Owner 0

All the ponies entered were started, and the first jump was taken by the other half of the Grand Stand was reached Venture refused, and while negotiating the next one in front of the Grand Stand, Irkdale fell and threw his rider over his head, thus allowing the rear ponies to pass him, and Kingcraft to lead. Irkdale's rider having remounted, proceeded, and had the good luck to pass all the ponies in succession except Kingcraft. Black Adder was third, Venture fourth.

HONORARY MEMBERS' CUP, value $25, added to a Sweepstakes of $3.00 each; catch weights over 11st.; winners of any official 1st race 7lb. extra; riders who have won any official race to carry 5lb. extra; penalties accumulated. Two miles.

Mr. A. O. Schuffenhauer's Stalwart, 11st. 11lb. Mr. Tulloch 1
Mr. A. O. Schuffenhauer's Vindicator, 11st. 11lb. Mr. Tulloch 1
Mr. Geo. Dallas's Seashore, 11st. 11lb. Owner 3
Mr. Cusby, Jnr.'s Millonaire, 11st. 11lb. Mr. Tulloch 1
Mr. C. F. Woodward's Wallaby, 11st. 11lb. Mr. Tulloch 1
Mr. Jas. Jones's Baby, 11st. 11lb. Mr. Tulloch 1
Mr. F. Aycock's Fletch, 11st. 11lb. Mr. Tulloch 1
Mr. Thos. Kingsmill's Malbrock, 11st. 11lb. Mr. Tulloch 1
Mr. McCarty 0

Of the ten ponies entered, eight started and they got away well together, but Millonaire soon took the lead, though Malbrock quickly collared him and maintained his lead till the past the Grand Stand, the other ponies coming up in a bunch some distance behind him. Before reaching the Long-fel Gate his luck deserted him, and he fell back, so that this pony was enabled to take first place, but this pony was next passed by Stalwart and Vindicator, and they came in first in the order named, Seashore third. Time 4 min. 35 sec.

THE CONSOLATION STEEPLECHASE, value $25, added to a Sweepstakes of $2.00 each; previous winners of a Hunt or Steeplechase prize excluded; catch weights over 11st.; half entrance fees to second pony. From Widow's Monument once round and in.

Mr. P. A. Crosthwaite's Cardless, 11st. 10lb. Owner 1
Mr. E. S. Perrot's Cefu, 11st. 10lb. Owner 2
Mr. C. G. Davies' Lushan, 11st. 10lb. Mr. Tulloch 3
Mr. F. Maitland's Sky Pilot, 11st. 10lb. Mr. Tulloch 3

Mr. C. Jordan's Exchange, 11st. 10lb. Mr. Ruff 0
Mr. Geo. Dallas's Seashore, 11st. 10lb. Owner 0
Mr. "Vyvyan's" Pipeclay, 11st. 10lb. Mr. Aycock 0
Mr. F. Souter's Gerry, 11st. 10lb. Owner 0
Mr. C. Ingham's Holdsworth, 11st. 10lb. Mr. Tulloch 0
Mr. J. Callaway's Tantiy, 11st. 10lb. Mr. Tulloch 0

Ten out of a dozen entrants tried conditions for the consolation, and got away very well. The first jump was taken by Cardless, but the next pony refused, the others taking the jump easily. Later on two ponies came to grief, and were out of the race. Cardless ultimately placed by his owner, maintained his lead to the finish, the second and third ponies, Cefu and Lushan, coming in some distance behind him.

THE BEST STAKES.—Three-Quarters of a Mile. A Handicap for heavy weight riders. Entrance $3.00.

Mr. H. J. H. Tripp's Resolution, 19st. 10lb. Owner 1
Mr. A. O. Schuffenhauer's Stalwart, 18st. 10lb. Owner 2
Mr. Jas. Jones's Baby, 18st. 10lb. Owner 3
Mr. F. Mann's Snipho, 18st. 10lb. Owner 0
Mr. C. F. Woodward's Bandicoot, 19st. 10lb. Mr. Tulloch 2

Mr. O. Middleton's Lochiel, 18st. 10lb. Owner 0
In this race the ponies carried considerable weight, and the heaviest rider was the winner, for although Lochiel and Bandicoot took the lead for a short time, they had eventually to give place to Resolution, a position this pony kept to the finish. Stalwart second, Bandicoot third. Time 1 min. 11 sec.

THE "SULPHUR" CUP.—Presented. Value $25. For all starters at the meeting. Winners excluded. Catch weights over 10st. 11lb. From Grand Stand jump once round and finish over the same jump. Post entries. Entrance fees ($2) to go to the second pony.

Mr. A. O. Schuffenhauer's Black Adder, 10st. 11lb. Mr. Renny 1
Mr. C. G. Davies' Lushan, 10st. 11lb. Mr. Tulloch 2
Mr. C. Ingham's Holdsworth, 11st. 11lb. Mr. Tulloch 2

Mr. Vyvyan's Pipeclay, 10st. 11lb. Mr. Ruff 0
Mr. F. Souter's Gerry, 10st. 7lb. Owner 0
Mr. S. Reynell's Perseverance, 10st. 7lb. Owner 0
Mr. Maitland's Sky Pilot, 10st. 7lb. Mr. Tulloch 0

Mr. F. F. Ferris's Likelihood, 10st. 7lb. Mr. McCarty 0
Mr. McCarty 0

Black Adder led from the start in this steeplechase, and was not passed by any of the ponies among whom there were considerable changes in relative positions. Gerry and Sky Pilot failed to negotiate one of the jumps but Lushan and Holdsworth stuck as close as they could to the leader, and it was a good neck-and-neck struggle between them for second place. Lushan was second and Holdsworth third.

BARE BACK RACE.—Entries ($1.00) will close on the ground.—Three-quarters of a mile. Surcingle allowed. Catch weights.

Black Diver, Mr. Renny 1
Seashore, Mr. Tulloch 1
Fletch, Mr. Aycock 1
Enchanter, Mr. Tulloch 0
Teetotum, Mr. Couts 0
Tantiy, Mr. Read 0
Kingcraft, Mr. Tulloch 0
Violent, Mr. Edlind 0
Pulpit, Mr. Whitefield 0

Nine started in this race, and the riders had to mount on the course without aid. Eight of them did so easily, but the ninth had some difficulty. There was a false start, and two of the ponies, Teetotum and Kingcraft, went nearly round the course before they could be stopped, and had then little chance of winning against comparatively fresh ponies. When the flag fell, Black Diver took the lead which he kept to the finish and won easily, Seashore second, Fletch third, the others came trailing in.—Time, 1 min. 35 sec.

THE PROPOSED JUDICIAL AND CONSULAR CHANGES AT SHANGHAI.

At a largely attended and thoroughly representative meeting of British residents held at the Shanghai Club on March 10th, Mr. John Macgregor, of Messrs. Jardine, Matheson & Co. in the chair, it was unanimously decided that the following petition and protest against the proposed changes in the Judicial and Consular services at Shanghai be forwarded to the British Minister at Peking, the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and the principal Chambers of Commerce in Great Britain, and that a summary be sent by wire to the China Association in London:—

To Sir John Walsam, Bart.

Her Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary and Chief Superintendent of British Trade in China.

The Petition and protest of the undersigned:—
We the undersigned, British subjects resident at Shanghai, have the honour to address you on the subject of changes about to be made in the system of Her Majesty's Judicial Establishment and Consular Service in China.

We find it stated in newspapers published here that Her Majesty's Government contemplates amalgamating the Office of Chief Justice of Her Britannic Majesty's Supreme Court for China and Japan with that of Her Majesty's Consul General at Shanghai; and creating an Office of Consul to be amalgamated with that of Assistant Judge of Her Majesty's Court; and we view with alarm such changes as these, or any changes which may hamper the independent and impartial position which Her Majesty's Consul General has hitherto held in advocating and protecting our rights by the means of representations to the Chinese Authorities.

Our position here is an exceptional one. We have local Municipal Government constituted under the Land Regulations for the Foreign Settlements North of the Yang-king-pang, while we live and have our warehouses upon land held under the Chinese Government, and our ships and merchandise in transit, are subject to Customs regulations made by the Chinese Government, and which it claims to be enforceable by its Officials solely, while we are governed by British Law.

In consequence of this anomalous state of affairs questions between British subjects and the Chinese Authorities frequently arise and in many cases it is found that the Chinese Courts before which, under treaty, we have to bring our suits are not vested with sufficient power to entertain our claims.

Under these circumstances, as Her Majesty's Legation is practically inaccessible in cases of emergency, on account of its distance from Shanghai, the Consul General is our only resort, and hitherto has by negotiation, obtained for British subjects protection and recognition of just claims, which must practically have been abandoned but for the existence of this mode of procedure.

The influence exercisable by the Consul General depends in a great measure upon his occupying a high and independent position, coupled with long experience in dealing with Chinese Officials.

In case the Offices of Chief Justice and Consul General are joined into one, and of an appointment being conferred on any other than a member of Her Majesty's Consular service, it is obvious that the Consul General will not have the experience above referred to, while the Consul will be a subordinate Officer, against whose views the Chinese can always claim to appeal to the Consul General, and whose office will consequently carry no weight in their estimation.

Moreover, if the Consul General is to be Chief Justice also, and the Consul is to be Assistant Judge also, neither of these officials will be able, with propriety, to hear the case and urge the claims of one side, when there is a possibility of the matter resolving itself into a suit against a British subject or of such a suit arising out of it.

The existence of a Court presided over by a Judge who has gone through a regular judicial training, who can be relied upon to administer justice in accordance with law, has in our opinion, a strong tendency to reduce litigation to a minimum, because parties are enabled to obtain advice from their own Counsel, as to how a claim or defence will result, without bringing the case into Court; and this is an inestimable advantage to a commercial community where a very large and varied business is carried on.

We would beg to point out that as it was found desirable some twenty-six years ago, to establish the Supreme Court, which has since proved itself so beneficial to British interests in China, it is obvious that it is now much more essential, when those interests have developed to such a great extent.

If the only object of Her Majesty's Government is economy, we think that it could be effected more advantageously and in other ways than by amalgamating the offices of Chief Justice and Consul General, a step which, in our opinion, is fraught with danger.

In view of the foregoing and without entering into details with which it is not necessary to burden this memorial, we hereby beg respectfully to record our protest against these proposed changes, and ask you to request that Her Majesty's Government may see fit to reconsider its decision in a matter of such great importance to British trade and British interests in China.

Shanghai, 10th March, 1891.

Mr. Macgregor's remarks in support of the protest are worthy of reproduction. He said:—
There has been a universal feeling present in the community that the changes which were rumoured as about to take place deserve some notice and protest. A few members of the community met informally and incidentally at the Club, and a small committee, if I may call them so, were asked to undertake the duty of drawing up this petition which is in your hands. The feeling which is expressed in the petition and remonstrance, I believe, universal. The news came upon the community as an entire surprise, and people were loath to believe that a step so retrograde in character and with possibilities of mischief so inherent, should become more than a rumour.

We are well assured, however, that there is every interest of carrying it into effect; and on the day as it may be, it becomes us to record our emphatic protest against a change which we believe to be most inimical not only to the interests of persons actually resident here but also to the progressive development of British relations with China (applause). If the separate and independent establishment of supreme judicial and consular functions were deemed necessary and proper in 1865, it is surely much more so now, when there is a largely increased population here and a trade in this port alone which, according to late Customs returns, represents a gross annual value of 150 millions of taels, or 37 millions sterling, while shipping enters this port to the extent of 34 millions of tons annually, of which more than 27 million tons are under the British flag (applause). I say that in view of the varying interests concerned and which arise out of the social and business life inseparable from the conduct of such a trade, any retrograde step such as is contemplated is most injurious (applause). I should also allude to the question of our municipal life and institutions, in connection with which questions of delicacy often arise calling for the exercise of careful handling. If friction is to be avoided, and in which the intervention of H.B.M.'s Consul-General is constantly availed of. It may be said that for these diplomatic functions we have a Minister at Peking; but, good Heavens, what is likely to be the result (laughter and applause). The absence of any response from that quarter to representations from Shanghai is already too well known. As stated in the petition, we want our own Consul-General, and we want him in position, as H.B.M.'s Consul-General, who from special training and experience has a knowledge of Chinese diplomacy (Hear, hear). The Minister is 1,000 miles away from us, and for three months of the year he is practically isolated by ice. (A laugh). If, as is stated in the petition, economy is the object that is aimed at, I conceive that the object might be attained without inflicting upon us the injury which is soon to be done. Many schemes have been talked of, and one or two notable suggestions—such as a particularly valuable suggestion of a series of them—as to how the independence of the judicial and consular functions could be maintained without in any way impairing their efficiency, while arriving at some economy. It is not, however, I conceive, the business of this meeting to suggest to the British Government or the Treasury any details. I have no doubt whatever that they have received advice upon such a subject from those well able to give them advice. It appears, however, that they have chosen to stand by that which they have themselves evolved out of their inner consciousness. In that remarkable pronouncement made the other day by the Chancellor of the Exchequer at Leeds, he used the following words in connection with the subject of economy: "I look upon it as more important to put the currency in a safe and sound position than to give for the Exchequer a certain number of hundreds of thousands of pounds." I say, let them apply the same principle to the development of trade in China (applause). The saving which may be effected is infinitesimal. I believe it could be effected in other ways than that which is proposed, but, saying or not, I hold, and I am sure this meeting will agree with me, that British trade with China is of much greater importance than the paltry saving that is sought to be effected (Hear, hear). In issuing and giving effect to and sending this protest I am sure you are all at one that they are saying that we are at no disrespect and no disrespect to Mr. Justice Hannen, who is the Chief Justice designate and Consul-General at Shanghai. To most of us he is known as a personal friend, of whom we know nothing but what is good, and whom we can all appreciate as a friend; but there are principles underlying this question which I conceive it to be our duty to face and to make our protest notwithstanding individuals. With these remarks—and I apologise for taking up your time so long, because I believe the petition and remonstrance embodies everything that is practically necessary to be said—I move "That this meeting adopt the petition and protest just read" (applause).

The proposal was seconded by Mr. John Walter, local manager of the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank, and warmly supported by Mr. C. J. Holliday (Messrs. Holliday, Wise & Co.), Mr. Howie (Messrs. Turnbull, Horne & Co.), Mr. R. W. Little, Editor of the North China Daily News, Mr. W. V. Drummond, barrister-at-law, Mr. R. E. Wainwright, solicitor, and Mr. T. W. Kingsmill, C.E.

In concluding the business the Chairman said he had never seen a larger and more representative meeting upon any public question in Shanghai.

FORMOSA.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

Tamul, 1st March, 1891.

A little excitement was caused in our community a few days ago by the risk of a aborigines from the borders. During their stay they were under the care of Dr. Mackay, who did everything possible to make things pleasant for them. Lots of presents in the shape of wearing apparel, tobacco, etc., were given to them, in the acceptance of which they were not over-demonstrative; in fact when a thing was given to them, their delight did not manifest itself by their breaking into thanks to the donor, but in showing their acquisitions to their companions. Their features did not betray any of the ferocity one would expect from savages; they appeared more like overgrown children, full of life and laughter. Several of them were tattooed; the men not so much. One or two of the women had a band, one-and-a-half to two inches broad, tattooed from the ears over each cheek and meeting across the mouth. The practice is, however, I believe, dying out, being but slightly indulged in at the present time. Some of the males were of robust physique, and the females were not wanting in this respect, the younger ones especially. They are terrible beggars and betray no ignorance of the almighty dollar, making their requests for one with the thumb and forefinger joined together, and feeling your pockets lest you should misunderstand.

The have a sort of dance, performed in a circle, which they commence with a jump and—no music! Mirrors, I fear me, have filled most of their heads with vanity, as on a first sight of them on board the steamer Hailong there was some difficulty in getting the females away from the mirrors. They all left for their homes after a stay of about three days.

There are no steamers in port at present: the Telegraph steamer Patoka is at Kelung in the Gulf for Shanghai. The weather is exceptionally fine and warm, but we cannot expect that it will last for any length of time.

A billiard club was opened in Hobe at the beginning of the year, and is being well supported, supplying as it does a place for recreation to the residents and officers of steamers trading here.—Shanghai Mercury.

HANGCHOW.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

February 28th.

The month of February will be remembered as giving us a succession of beautiful days from the first to the last with hardly an unpleasant exception. It was not only a pleasure but a great boon to the Chinese to have good weather during their New Year season, as it is a time requiring them to be out of doors a great deal, first in running after debtors and running away from creditors, then in going around calling and having a good time with their fine clothes on. All that is in the past now and the ordinary routine of business and the humdrum of ordinary life have begun again.

On the 23rd inst. we heard distinct claps of thunder. On the 26th there was a large fire and one that will be memorable from the fact that the Drum Tower was burned. This tower stands near the central part of the city and many good business houses were destroyed. The people, however, are more impressed with the burning of the tower than all the houses, because they imagine that it portends calamity. Another name of the tower indicates that it rests the tide from the sea, and its destruction weakens the defence of the city against the ravages of the great tidal wave that rushes up the river twice a day the year round. The people, however, speak of this calamity as an omen of revolution, change of the dynasty, etc. They cite the fact that in the 27th year of Tao Kwang the tower was burned, and two years later the rebels appeared in Kuangtung. I similar results may be expected now. The city officials decided promptly to rebuild it, and the contracts have already been let out for 5,000 taels.—N. C. Daily News.

SCOTT'S Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites acts both as food and medicine. It not only gives flesh and strength by virtue of its own nutritious properties, but creates an appetite for food that builds up the wasted body. Read the following:—"Scott's Emulsion is in my opinion an excellent and valuable compound. It gives strength to consumptive patients, and has been delighted with the results obtained. It is pleasant to the taste and can be borne by the most sensitive stomach."—E. A. ROWLEY, M.D., Butter-Knowle, Darlington. Any Chemist can supply it.—A. S. Watson & Co.
